

Stage 3 report

We are going to use Tensorflow library and keras model and python to deal with our small training dataset. We now collected 200 sets of images. (7 images per set) totally around 1400 images. Now we are self-studying deep learning and CNN(Convolutional neural networks)

Because the dataset contains all images, so we can't upload them to github repo. Code will be submitted on stage4